A unique detached two bedroom bungalow with spacious lounge, sun lounge and dining room plus kitchen and utility room. Non estate location with spacious driveway and parking area as well as substantial garage/workshop and enclosed car port. Excellent opportunity for buyers seeking ample parking and garaging. Viewings recommended.

A rare opportunity to purchase a bungalow on Barretts Lane in Feltwell, a quiet lane near walks and countryside and conveniently located just a short walk from the local Doctors Surgery and Dispensary. This bungalow includes a spacious driveway and parking area with access to a large enclosed carport and separate garage/workshop with inspection pit. The bungalow offers comfortable and versatile accommodation including a separate lounge and dining area as well as a rear sun/garden room. The kitchen is well fitted and there is a utility room off and as well as having a shower room there is another shower room in the enclosed car port, ideal for when working outside. Other benefits include a wood burning stove in the lounge, oil central heating and Upvc double glazing.

The sale of this property offers an ideal opportunity to those purchasers seeking an individual bungalow in a non estate position, particularly those seeking useful and substantial garaging and the convenience of good village services. Viewings are recommended.
