The Property

An excellent opportunity to purchase this individually designed spacious detached four bedroom house in this sought after village. Enjoying a non estate position down a private shared lane, this 'Chain Free' home occupies a large garden plot and boasts generous accommodation throughout. Viewings are recommended.

SITUATION & LOCATION

A superb opportunity to purchase this individual detached village residence situated at the end of a private shared driveway and occupying a large established plot with gardens enjoying a southerly aspect. Believed to have been built in the late 1980s, the current owner has lived in the property for a number of years and we are privileged to be instructed to market this property for sale, Chain free. The house boasts generous accommodation throughout, well suited to a family's needs including four ground floor reception rooms, a large well fitted kitchen with utility off and four bedrooms, the master bedroom having an en suite bathroom. There is also a family bathroom and ground floor cloakroom.

The house benefits from oil fired central heating and Upvc double glazing and there is an attached double garage with automated garage door. You would expect a house of this size to have a large garden and you will not be let down. The large garden, predominantly to the south as well as a paved terrace off the sun room where there is a hot tub that is included at the listed price. The sale of this property offers an wonderful opportunity to those purchasers seeking a large comfortable home in this well served Suffolk village and viewings are recommended.

Lakenheath has a range of amenities including churches, public houses, shops and other services, sporting and recreation facilities, a doctor's surgery and schooling for younger children. Lakenheath railway station is about 2 miles from the village centre. Lakenheath is about 6 miles from Brandon and 12 miles from the larger Norfolk town of Thetford. The town of Mildenhall lies approximately 4 miles away with Bury St. Edmunds located approximately 10 miles to the South.
