

Franklyn James

Escapade Place, Blackwall, London, E14 0WH Asking Price £617,500

A Property That Feels Like a House, Just Minutes from Canary Wharf.

Just a short stroll from Blackwall DLR, this welcoming split-level property by Beech Grove Homes offers a rare sense of space and independence in the heart of London's Docklands.

With its own private entrance, the home is arranged over two floors, combining the feel of a house with the convenience of modern apartment living. On the ground floor, you will find two generously sized double bedrooms, offering flexible options for guests, working from home, or creating your own quiet retreat.

Upstairs, the property opens into a bright and airy open-plan kitchen, dining and living area, providing the perfect setting for everything from quiet mornings to entertaining friends. A separate winter garden sits just off the lounge, adding an extra layer of versatility to the space, whether you are after a reading corner, a plant-filled haven, or simply somewhere to relax.

A modern shower room and a dedicated utility area complete the upper floor, bringing useful functionality to the home without compromising on design.

Finished with a sleek, contemporary aesthetic, the interior features integrated Zanussi appliances, Silestone worktops and stylish flooring throughout. Every detail has been carefully considered to create a comfortable and high-quality living environment.

All of this within easy reach of Canary Wharf's restaurants, shops and excellent transport links. With the Elizabeth line nearby, central London is more accessible than ever.
