Sitting along this desirable avenue on the sought after South Bents estate, set midway between Seaburn and Whitburn and just a stones throw from award winning Blue Flag beaches, this well proportioned three double size bedroom semi detached home with west facing gardens to the rear offers an excellent opportunity for families who wish to live in this sought after coastal location.

Arranged over two floors, the property internally comprises an entrance porch, reception hall with turned staircase, cloak cupboard, ground floor shower room, lounge, dining room and a modern kitchen, whilst at first floor level there are three well proportioned bedrooms and a large bathroom. Benefiting from gas central heating and UPVC double glazing, the property externally has laid to lawn gardens to the front, a long drive to the side providing off street parking for up to three cars and a generous garage, whilst enclosed gardens to the rear enjoy a westerly aspect and have a lovely patio seating area capturing sunshine all day long.

Walking distance from a superb range of amenities along the sea front and in Seaburn the property is also within short walking distance of Whitburn village centre with its good selection of shops. Within easy reach of South Shields and Sunderland City Centre the property is also well placed for major routes through to Newcastle Upon Tyne and sure to impress all who view. Immediate internal inspection is unreservedly recommended.
