

A popularly situated four bedroom detached home boasting a ground floor extension and offering well proportioned family sized living accommodation within walking distance of village amenities and superb schools.

This beautifully presented home, sitting just off Sunnyside Lane at the foot of Cleadon Hills, is finished to a good standard throughout and offers a good selection of modern day features, with accommodation comprising: entrance porch, reception hall, ground floor washroom, lounge, dining room, sun lounge, open kitchen with dining room and family room, four first floor bedrooms, a shower room and a family bathroom. Benefiting from gas central heating, UPVC double glazing, a fully floored loft space and remote control electric shutters to the Velux windows in the family room, the property externally boasts immaculate gardens to the front and rear together with a double drive and garage to the side with electric door.

Ready to move into and ideal for those who require a "Turnkey" living space, the property is just a short stroll from superb amenities including shops, cafes, restaurants, bars and pubs together with Cleadon Village Academy and its two nurseries.

The picturesque village of Cleadon is well known for its semi rural setting, yet very convenient position with excellent transport links through to Sunderland, South Shields, Newcastle Upon Tyne and Durham City. With Sunderland's magnificent coastline with its award winning Blue Flag beaches also close to hand, this stunning home should prove to be very popular indeed and immediate internal inspection is unreservedly recommended.
