

Moor Lane, Cleadon, Sunderland

£750,000

Occupying a discreet position on an impressive garden plot measuring approximately 1/3 of an acre, this substantial detached bungalow offers a well proportioned and flexible stair free living space with the added bonus of having additional rooms which would serve well as a separate annex to the main dwelling. Internal accommodation comprises reception hall, living room with cast iron stove, lounge with open plan arrangement with dining both which share a double sided cast iron stove and of which both share an open plan arrangement with the kitchen, three bedrooms, an en-suite shower room and a family bathroom whilst the annex area features a living room with cocktail bar (which could serve as a kitchen (subject to building regulations and planning permission)), bedroom and shower room. Benefiting from gas central heating and UPVC double glazing, the property boasts generous gardens to the front, side and rear and a large drive accessed via remote control electric gates providing secure off street parking for numerous cars together with a large double detached garage. Located just off Moor Lane and situated close to greenbelt and local village amenities, the property is also within easy reach of the sea front and its award winning Blue Flag beaches, East Boldon Metro station and major routes serving Sunderland City centre, South Shields and Newcastle Upon Tyne. This property is indeed a rare introduction to the market and will appeal to many therefore immediate internal inspection is highly recommended and considerable interest is anticipated.
