

This newly refurbished, individually designed, detached bungalow of exceptional style and quality, sits along the cliff tops of Whitburn within the sought after Nicholas Avenue estate, being within easy walking distance of Whitburn's historic village centre with its superb boutique shops, cafes, restaurants, sea food deli and local shopping facilities together with close proximity to high performing schools.

Just a stones throw from award winning Blue Flag beaches and offering outstanding coastal walks, the property internally offers a fresh contemporary living space arranged over two floors, but with the added bonus of three bedrooms and two bathrooms to the ground floor, perfect for those who would require a stair free home. Internal accommodation comprises a reception hall, open plan living room, a bespoke "Bush Interiors" kitchen and diner with beautiful fittings throughout, glazed doors to a snug and aluminium bi folding doors into west facing rear gardens, three double sized bedrooms, with the principal bedroom having an en suite shower room, family bathroom and an additional fourth bedroom at first floor level with some splendid sea views.

Landscaped gardens are located to the front with a double drive, a side south facing garden enjoys a secluded spot and rear west facing gardens are also beautifully finished and provide access to a discreet storage shed perfect for garden equipment.

Arguably one of the most impressive examples of it's kind currently on the market today, the superb accommodation on offer would be ideal for professional couples, those looking for a bungalow to retire into and also large enough for growing families.

Only upon internal inspection can you fully appreciate everything this stunning home has to offer!
