HUNTERS®
HERE TO GET you THERE

Hunters are delighted to present this charming one bedroom maisonette home situated on Beech Street, in the ever popular Archer Park area of Middleton. Offered with no onward chain, this property is an excellent choice for first time buyers, those seeking to downsize, or investors looking to enhance their portfolio.

Upon entering the home, you are greeted by a well proportioned lounge, offering a cosy and inviting space for relaxation and entertaining. Adjacent to the lounge, the kitchen completes the ground floor, providing a practical layout for everyday living.

The standout spiral staircase leads to the first floor landing, where you'll find a spacious double bedroom and a bathroom designed to offer style and convenience. The property benefits from easily maintained front and side patio. For parking, there are spaces available at the front, requiring a residential permit that can be obtained from the local council.

Beech Street enjoys a fantastic location on the outskirts of Middleton, offering close proximity to local schools, shops, and excellent transport links, including the motorway network. Additionally, Middleton Town Centre is within easy reach, providing a variety of amenities, shops and services to suit your needs.

This property is partly furnished and ready to move into, ensuring a smooth and hassle free transition for its new owner. Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate everything this home has to offer.
