THE PROPERTY

A stunning, fully extended five-bedroom family home is situated on this popular residential street in the Grove Park area of Chiswick. The house is presented in excellent condition throughout. The ground floor comprises a large hallway, a double reception room with a bay window and high ceilings, a guest cloakroom, cellar, an extended kitchen/dining room with modern integrated appliances, a family dining area, gorgeous Herringbone wood flooring, and double doors leading to a South-East facing garden. The upper floors consist of a bright principal bedroom with fitted wardrobes and a feature fireplace, along with four further double bedrooms, a modern family bathroom, a shower room, and extensive eaves storage. The house benefits from being in the catchment area of two outstanding-rated primary schools and is conveniently located within an easy walk of Chiswick High Road's shops, cafes, and restaurants. Additionally, it is close to the River Thames with its popular pubs, local shops, and an award-winning deli. Transport links include Gunnersbury tube/Overground station, Chiswick mainline station, local bus routes, and the A4/M4 for convenient routes in and out of London.
