A superbly presented and extended three/four bedroom detached family home set in the ever popular village of Pimperne.

Tucked away in a quiet corner of Blandford Forum, this beautifully presented two-storey home offers a harmonious blend of character and practicality. The welcoming frontage, with its crisp white exterior and deep blue door, sets the tone for the thoughtfully arranged interiors within.

Stepping inside, the ground floor unfolds into a series of well-proportioned spaces, including a bright and inviting sitting room where French doors open to the garden, and a versatile second reception room that easily lends itself to use as a fourth bedroom or home office.

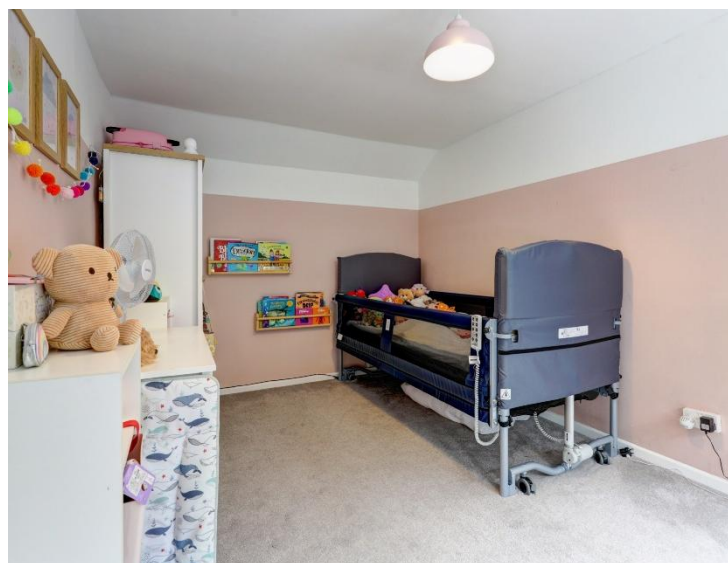

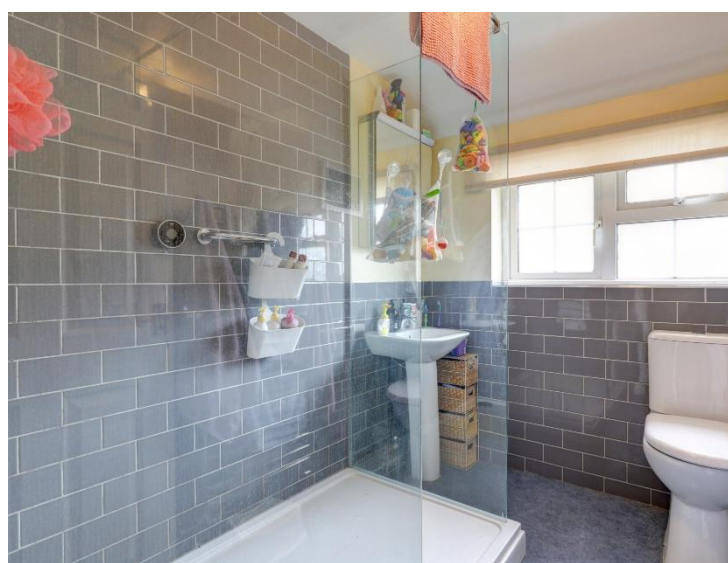

The kitchen is both stylish and functional, with warm wooden worktops, tiled flooring, and soft-toned cabinetry, all bathed in natural light from the window above the sink. Adjacent to this, the dining area offers a sociable setting for meals and gatherings, enhanced by a charming glass-fronted cabinet display.

A spacious utility room, complete with skylights and extensive cabinetry, provides a practical yet elegant workspace, also providing access to the downstairs WC.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom enjoys dual windows and generous natural light, complemented by a pair of built in wardrobes offering his-and-hers storage. Two further bedrooms provide flexible accommodation.

The family shower room is finished in contemporary grey tiling and features a sleek glass enclosure, creating a fresh and functional space.

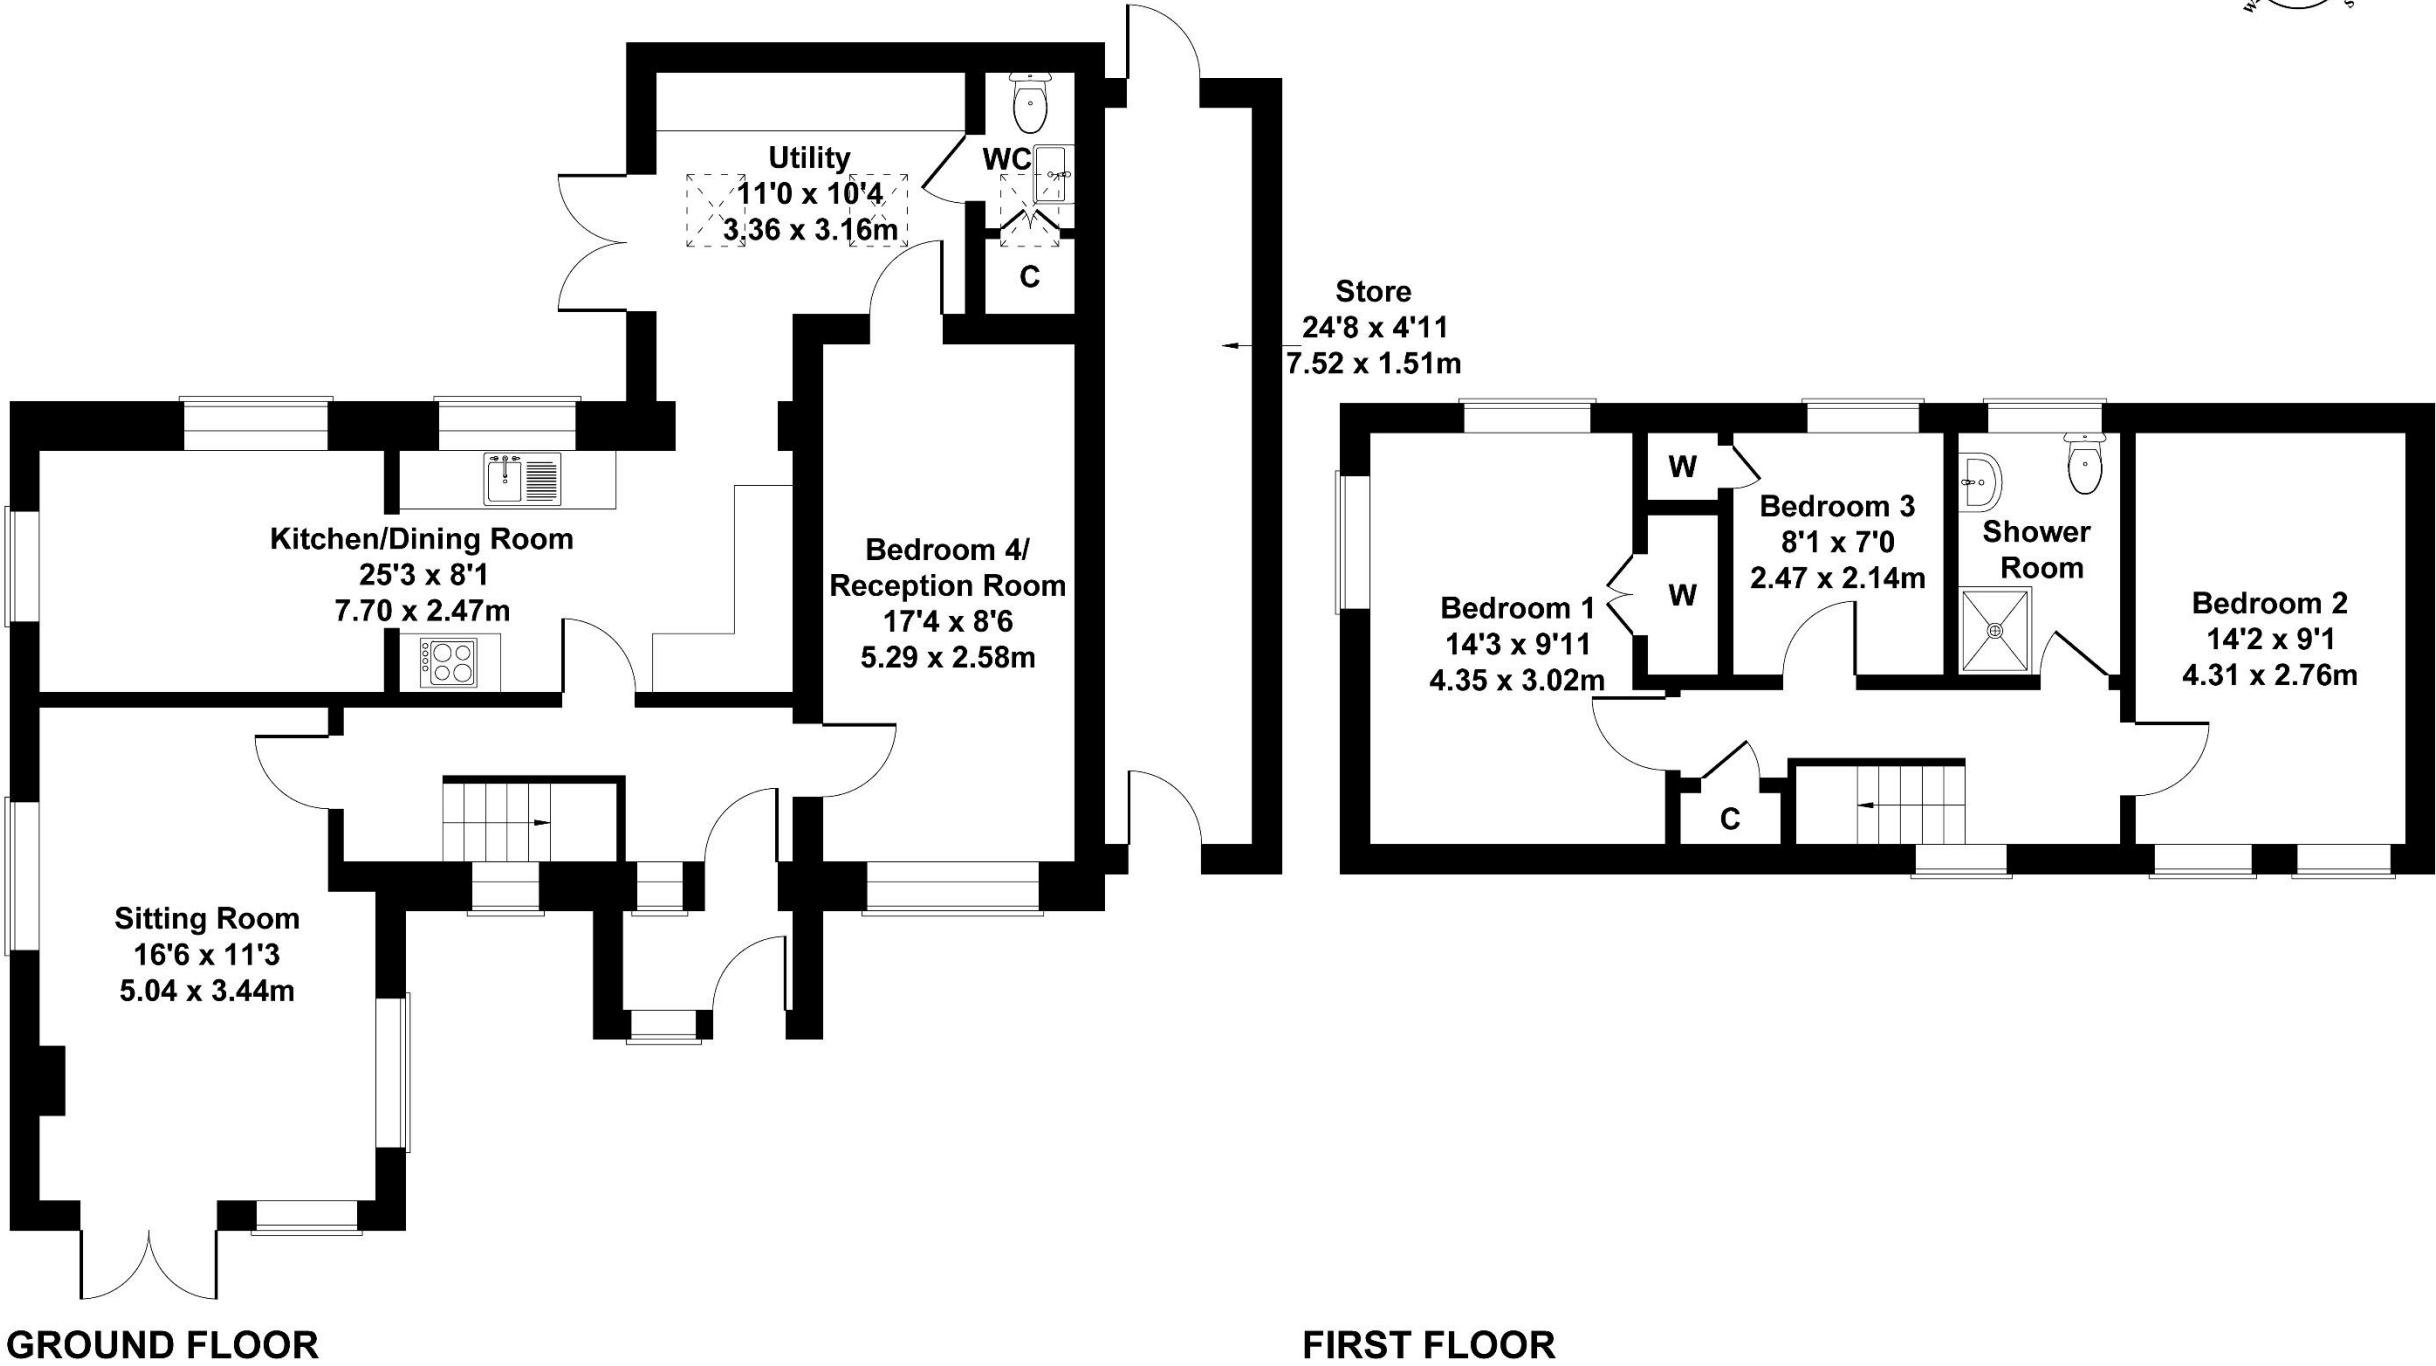

Outside, the home benefits from a paved driveway and a private rear garden, with a wrap around plot predominately laid to patio.
