As you step inside, the central reception hall, of this 4 double bedroom house, immediately impresses with its sense of grandeur, where rich cherry wood flooring flows seamlessly into the study/hobby room, offering charming views across the garden and effortless access to the conservatory. The dual aspect lounge is bathed in natural light, highlighting a stunning feature fireplace that forms the heart of the room. Across the hall, the formal dining room offers an elegant space for entertaining, while the separate kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of floor and wall units, along with a variety of integrated appliances, leading conveniently to the adjoining utility room.

The triple aspect conservatory is a true standout, perfect for relaxing throughout all seasons with direct access to the beautifully manicured gardens. Completing the ground floor is a stylish WC and the added practicality of direct internal access to the double garage. The first floor is reached via an elegant wooden spindled staircase, rising to a spacious and inviting landing. All four bedrooms are generously sized, offering comfort and versatility for family living. The two additional bedrooms are served by a beautifully appointed family bathroom. A delightful decision awaits between the principal bedroom and bedroom two, both feature an extensive range of fitted wardrobes and luxurious, fully tiled en-suite shower rooms, blending style with everyday convenience.

Location

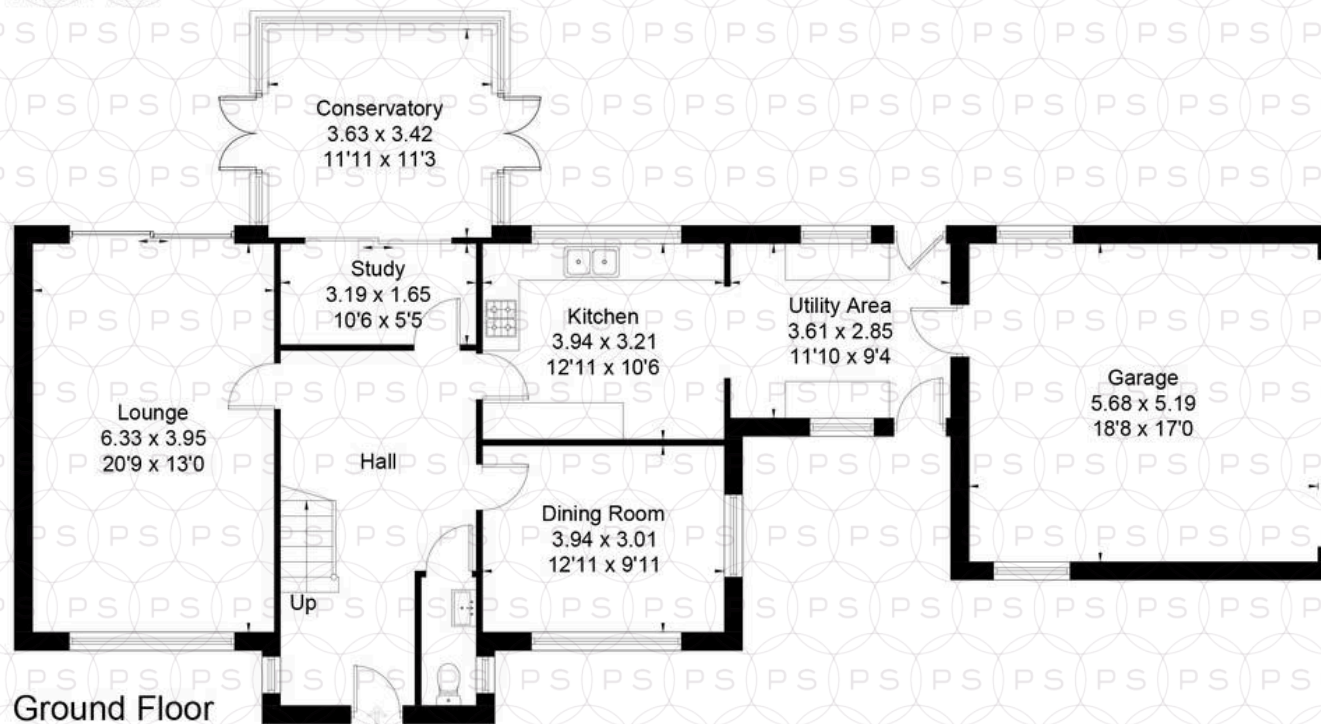

Bournemouth's stunning gardens and vibrant town centre, with its array of shops, restaurants, and entertainment facilities, are within easy walking distance. The beautiful sandy bathing beaches, stretching seven miles from Poole Harbour to Hengistbury Head, are also close by, offering a superb coastal lifestyle, with various water sports facilities and Marina's. There are also excellent transport links via the nearby A338 and mainline Bournemouth Railway station, providing a direct service to London Waterloo in approximately two hours.
