The heart of the home is a stunning kitchen and dining space, fitted with Italian marble worktops, a sleek splashback, and underfloor heating. A large heated breakfast bar accommodates four, while aluminium-framed windows and floor-to-ceiling bi-fold doors flood the area with natural light and open onto a private paved terrace ideal for entertaining.

A dedicated utility room provides essential functionality along with a secondary entrance from the covered car port. Smart home features include dual-zone Nest heating, Lightwave lighting, and Cat5 AV cabling throughout. Video entry points and pre-installed exterior wiring support added security.

The lounge is a generous and inviting space with sliding doors opening to landscaped gardens. A bespoke TV wall and potential dining area create a flexible layout. A ground floor room offers versatility as a fourth bedroom or home office.

Upstairs, the principal suite features bespoke wardrobes and a luxurious ensuite with walk-in shower, double basins, porcelain tiles, and a skylight. Two further bedrooms include one with an ensuite.

Location

Just 500 metres from the award-winning Sandbanks Beach, this home is ideally located for those seeking the ultimate coastal lifestyle. A network of scenic footpaths connects you to the shoreline, the famous chain ferry to Studland, and nearby beauty spots along the Jurassic Coast. Within walking distance are a range of waterside restaurants, including Rick Stein and The Haven Hotel, while Canford Cliffs village offers cafés, shops, and local amenities.

The area is also well served by transport links, with London accessible in under two hours by train from nearby Poole or Bournemouth stations. This rare position on the Sandbanks Peninsula combines tranquility, accessibility, and leisure in one of the UK's most prestigious seaside settings.
