Title Plan Guideline

Introducing...

The Captains Gardens, Manadon Park is the original walled Herb Garden to Manadon House. Imaginatively developed by Barratt Homes in 2002 the Captains Gardens has retained an air of exclusivity, being enclosed by the original stone wall and centred around a re-instated herb garden. Deceptive from the front, and positioned in the far-left hand corner, No. 7 is the biggest of all the houses in the Captains Garden and benefits from a walled south facing garden. In addition to the private rear garden, there is a further established ‘secret garden’ for the sole use of the residents. This unique family home benefits from all the conveniences one would expect from a modern home, such as double-glazed windows, central heating, parking and a garage. Plymouth Homes would therefore highly recommend a viewing of this well-presented, desirable home.

OUTSIDE:

FRONT

The development is set within a secluded position within Manadon Park and is approached via a stone wall which opens to the parking and garages of each property with a central roundabout. From here access is given onto the attractive and well-maintained herb garden with paved pathways leading to each of the properties and the resident's secret garden. To the front of this property a shared gate opens to a brick paved garden area leading to the main entrance.

REAR

A particular feature of this property is the southerly facing rear garden which measures 21.15m (69'4") in width x 10.93 (35'10") at longest. The majority of the garden is encompassed by a lovely stone wall which formed the boundary of the original captain's garden. From the kitchen/dining room French doors open to lovely composite decked seating area with a gate and shared pathway leading to the garage and parking. In the opposite direction the garden opens to a lovely lawned area with established flower borders, a selection of trees and shrubs and all enclosed.

GARAGE

A good-sized garage with up and over door, power supply and lighting, pitched roof space ideal for storage and rear door opening to a covered bin storage area. In front of the garage there is parking available for two further vehicles.

SECRET GARDEN

At the end of the herb garden a pathway continues between the houses and leads to a resident's ‘secret garden’ which is secured by a locked gate. This garden comprises lawn and woodland areas strictly for the use of residents of Captains Gardens where children can play and social events are also held.

AGENT’S NOTE

We have been informed there is an estate charge of £36 per month for the maintenance of the communal garden areas.

We recommend that potential purchasers inform their mortgage company and legal advisor of this information prior to commencing a purchase.
