Trinity is purely residential in nature and is situated just north of the New Town connected to it by Inverleith Row. It comprises a wide variety of substantial property styles ranging from very large detached stone-built villas to spacious flatted properties, all completed before the turn of the century. Nearby is an excellent local shopping centre at Goldenacre.

For those who enjoy open air facilities, there are the Botanic Gardens and Inverleith Park nearby. The walkways created on some of Edinburgh's old railway lines which radiate out from Warriston offer country-like walks yet within the very heart of the City.

The trip into the City Centre might take as little as ten minutes using one of the many and frequent bus services that pass through the district. Edinburgh's formal entertainments tend to be highly concentrated in the Lothian Road/Tollcross area. There are theatres and cinemas, all manner of bars and restaurants, indoor sports facilities and health clubs.
