THE LOCATION

Dippen, Isle of Arran

Seacliffe Cottages enjoys a pleasant, rural location in the Dippen hamlet, with stunning sea views and just a few miles from Whiting Bay.

Whiting Bay is located on the South-East corner of the island and overlooks the Firth of Clyde, with views to the very Southern point of Scotland. The village provides a newsagent, Post Office, pharmacy, two general food stores, café/bar, restaurant, bistro, hardware store and a farm shop. There is a craft outlet and art gallery, as well as a picturesque 18 hole golf course. Primary schooling is available in the village and secondary schooling is found in Lamlash. The surrounding area provides some of Arran's most scenic walks, not only along the shoreline but also through the forest to Glenashdale Falls.

The Isle of Arran, approximately 167 square miles in area, is sometimes referred to as "Scotland in miniature", as it is divided into highland and lowland areas by the Highland Boundary Fault. The island is a popular destination for geologists, due to the substantial volcanic activity around 16 million years ago in the Tertiary period. Arran is a popular destination for walkers, cyclists, golfers and families due to the number of activities on offer. Many sports, culture and music events take place annually including Brodick Highland Games, The Arran Malt and Music Festival, Grinduro, The Arran Man Triathlon and The Arran Mountain Festival to name but a few. There are also many places to visit such as Brodick Castle (and Lochranza Castle to the North of the Isle), two distilleries, a brewery, and an impressive seven golf courses.

Dippen, Isle of Arran

McEwan Fraser Legal are delighted and extremely proud to present to the open market one of Arran's most exceptional and unique properties located close to all that Arran has to offer.

Seacliffe Cottage sits in the tranquil hamlet of Dippen just a five-minute drive from shops and services with a tranquillity that's rarely seen in such close proximity to facilities.

In its elevated position overlooking 180-degree sea views, is this impressive cottage, built on three levels referred to as lower, middle and upper. In terms of location, layout, style and detail, it makes a super five-bedroom family home. It has the bonus of being able to be used as a two-bedroom self-contained accommodation and a three-bedroom self-contained accommodation, which has in the past been used as a holiday let.

Built-in circa 1800 and whilst on the outside retaining its character and old-world charm has been extensively modified internally. Floors have been relaid with damp proof membrane and insulation. Walls have been lined with studding, plasterboard, insulation and plaster finish. The windows are all double glazed uPVC. Roofs have been upgraded with battens and counter battens, and existing slate refitted.
