ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A rarely available split level, two double bedroom apartment in a beautiful Victorian conversion.

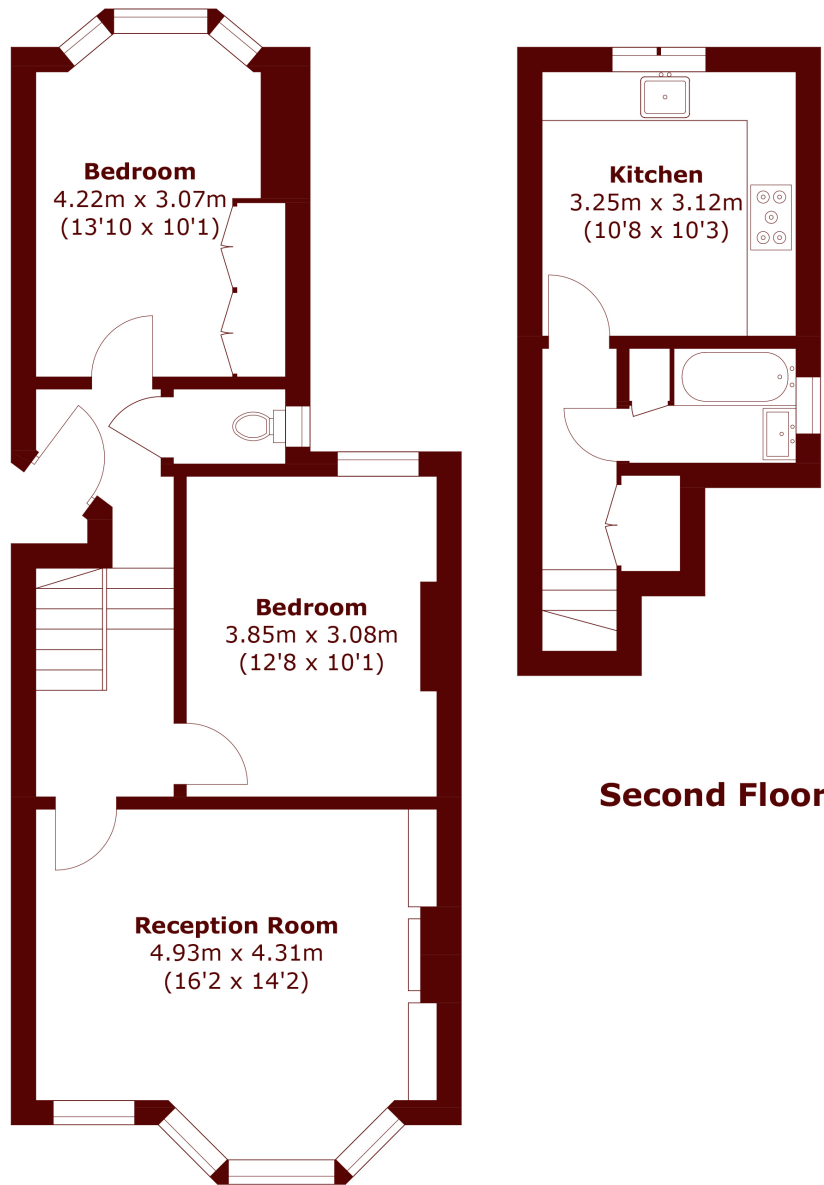

The flat is beautifully presented and ready to move in. It benefits from many original features, such as the working fireplace in the living room, double glazed sash windows throughout and high ceilings. It offers well maintained communal areas leading to the entrance. Both bedrooms are at the rear of the property, offering peaceful views of neighbouring gardens. The master bedroom offers bespoke built in storage and a large bay window. The second bedroom is generously sized, offering ample room for desk and double bed.

The property also benefits from a separate kitchen and living room. The reception room is bay fronted and flooded with natural light, offering enough space for a large dining table. The kitchen is modern and offers built-in appliances. There is a large loft space that can be extended into STPP.

Endymion Road is a highly desirable peaceful street within a low traffic neighbourhood and conveniently located for accessing the green spaces of Brockwell Park and the amenities of central Brixton. This is the perfect spot for a busy commuter with regular bus links
