ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A spectacular, bright and spacious two double bedroom, two bathroom apartment in a sought-after development in the heart of Brixton. Finished to an extremely high specification throughout with a private balcony offering far reaching views across, Central London, South London and Canary Wharf. The development offers well-maintained communal areas with a lift to all floors. It is made up of an exquisite open-plan reception and kitchen area with direct access onto the most incredible private balcony/terrace offering some of the best views over London. The two bedrooms are both doubles with large windows and again lovely views across London, the principal bedroom has an en-suite and the other has sole use of the main bathroom.

The property is desirably located in the centre of Brixton, providing excellent links into central London and the City. Brixton offers many fashionable bars, restaurants, and amenities, as well as the famous Brixton Academy and popular markets for fresh produce.
