Ale Oak Farm presents a rare opportunity to acquire a charming rural property sitting in the picturesque landscape of Shropshire. Located in the tranquil village of Newcastle, this idyllic farmhouse offers a blend of traditional charm and modern comfort, set amidst stunning countryside views.

Ale Oak Farm presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a rural retreat, agricultural enterprise or equestrian facility. The village of Newcastle on Clun is just 2 miles away, local amenities include a primary school, community hall and a church. The town of Clun is a further 3.5 miles with further amenities to include a primary school, church, doctors' surgery, tea rooms, several well respected public houses and a variety of independent shops including a hair salon and a convenience store.

The property boasts a well appointed farmhouse with characterful features including wood burning stoves set in traditional fireplaces, ceiling coving and picture rails in the reception rooms. The formal entrance hall leads into a spacious living room with fireplace, kitchen/dining area, study, guest W.C. and rear porch. A lovely and light sun room accessed via the living room provides the perfect spot to enjoy the views.

On the first floor, the master bedroom is adjacent to the house bathroom, with suite in white comprising panel bath with shower over, vanity unit inset wash hand basin and W.C. Two additional bedrooms benefit from built-in wardrobes and views of open countryside.

Surrounding the farmhouse are well-maintained gardens, providing a serene outdoor space for relaxation and enjoyment. The outbuildings offer a selection of barns, stables, car ports and storage sheds, with land extending approximately 30 acres, Ale Oak Farm provides ample space for agricultural pursuits or potential development opportunities. Having paddocks, stables and menage, this is an ideal opportunity for discerning buyers.
