Located on Broome Road in the charming village of Clungunford, Craven Arms, Bryn Glas presents a rare opportunity to acquire a delightful detached house, built in the late 1950s. This double-fronted property boasts an impressive quadruple bay window façade, offering a warm welcome to all who enter.

Inside, the home features two spacious reception rooms, both adorned with solid fuel stoves and original 1950s fireplaces. The large kitchen is equipped with a coal-fired Rayburn, (not checked) and plumbing for a washing machine, and a generous stainless steel sink and drainer. With dual aspect windows overlooking the side and rear gardens, this space is filled with natural light. Additionally, a cold store pantry and a substantial utility room with a W.C provide ample storage and functionality. There is also an integral garage, ideal for parking or additional storage.

Upstairs, a large landing with a picture window leads to three well-proportioned bedrooms. The main bedroom features a charming bay window and a useful cupboard to the rear which also has another door leading to the roof space over the garage. With careful planning an additional room could be created here STPP/Building Regulations. The second bedroom also enjoys a bay window and additional storage. The third bedroom, located at the rear, offers another double room with fabulous views over the valley beyond. The bathroom, though simple, includes a three-piece suite, providing essential amenities.

The gardens, both front and rear, are a blank canvas awaiting your personal touch. With a little imagination, they could be transformed into a beautiful sunny retreat, perfect for outdoor entertaining or relaxation.

Bryn Glas is a property that requires complete modernisation, offering you the chance to design a truly magnificent home tailored to your tastes. With parking for four vehicles and a prime location, this property is not to be missed. Embrace the opportunity to create your dream home in this idyllic setting.
