Situation

Great Bourton to the north of the historic market town of Banbury. The village boasts a public house, The Bell Inn (currently closed), a children's play park and some lovely countryside walks. The neighbouring village of Cropredy offers primary schooling and further facilities. Banbury is a thriving, market town located just north of Oxford amidst beautiful rolling countryside. The town is steeped in history and is now a modern centre with a full range of shops, supermarkets, a cinema, restaurants and leisure facilities. Communication links are excellent with Junction 11 of the M40 situated approximately two miles north east. Banbury railway station provides regular trains to all parts of the country with London and Birmingham a comfortable commute (London Marylebone from 57 minutes and Birmingham New Street from 44 minutes). Birmingham Airport is about 40 miles distant and Heathrow and Luton Airports are also within easy reach. The local area provides a range of primary, secondary and mixed boarding schools. Independent schools including St. John's Priory Prep School, Carrdus, Tudor Hall (girls) and Bloxham School (co-ed) are all within easy reach. Local leisure retreats include Soho Farm House (11 miles), Tadmorton Golf Club (5.6 miles) and Oxford Westgate (25 miles).

Directions

From Banbury proceed in a northerly direction via the Southam Road. Continue along this road out of Banbury for approximately 2 miles and turn right where signposted for Great Bourton. Take the right hand turn into School Lane and follow the road around to the right where the entrance will be seen on your right hand side.

Services

Mains water, electricity and drainage are connected. Heating via an air source heat pump.
