This spacious detached family home, set back from the roadside, offers a welcoming blend of comfort and practicality. Boasting an impressive plot with ample parking and a southerly rear aspect, the property is arranged over three floors, offering versatile living space. The ground floor features a bright entrance hall with a cloakroom/WC, a bay-fronted lounge with folding double doors leading to a garden room, and a versatile playroom. A formal dining room and a large dining kitchen, equipped with a comprehensive range of units and integrated appliances, provide excellent spaces for family living and entertaining. A practical boot room offers ample storage, making daily life more convenient.

The first floor offers three double bedrooms, including a luxurious primary suite with a dressing room and en-suite, along with a family bathroom. The top floor adds two more generously sized double bedrooms, complete with fitted wardrobes, and a shower room. Externally, the property benefits from extensive parking with driveways leading to a double garage. The part-walled, southerly rear garden is ideal for outdoor enjoyment. Additionally, the home is equipped with solar photovoltaic panels, enhancing energy efficiency and reducing utility costs.
