Arnold & Phillips are delighted to bring to market an exciting opportunity to acquire this beautifully presented and fully renovated two-bedroom semi-detached stone cottage, residing with a generous rural plot along the picturesque Ben Lane in Bickerstaffe, West Lancs.

Ideally positioned this charming country cottage resides within close proximity to a host of local amenities and enjoys excellent transport and commuter links.

Approached via a private driveway providing off-road parking for multiple vehicles, access is granted via the main entrance, with one received into a spacious front entrance porch. Two spacious living rooms reside centrally, with gorgeous parquet wooden flooring running underfoot along. The main living room enjoys a stunning red-brick exposed fireplace, with a multi-fuel log burning fireplace with timber mantle providing a pleasant central feature to this bright room. A country cottage shaker kitchen has been recently fitted and enjoys an array of wall, base and tower units, providing a range of integrated appliances and premium Oak work-surfaces.

The first floor enjoys two spacious double bedrooms, both of which are neutrally decorated and enjoys a beautiful uninterrupted outlook over the surrounding countryside. The property is well-served by a beautifully finished main family bathroom, providing a free-standing slipper bath, WC, wash hand basin and corner shower.

Externally the property enjoys a flagged patio terrace ideal for entertaining along with an extensive garden which is not overlooked and is laid with sprawling lawns and bordered by established trees and bushes. Residing within the heart of the countryside internal inspection is highly advised and early viewing will be essential to avoid disappointment.
