Arnold & Phillips are delighted to present this two-bedroom first floor apartment located in a much sought-after area of Ormskirk. Offered on a 70% shared ownership basis, this attractive property provides a fantastic opportunity to own a conveniently situated contemporary apartment at an attractive value. Accessed via the communal entrance and staircase, the property is approached via an attractive red-brick foyer and opens into an inviting entrance hallway, which flows through to two well-proportioned bedrooms, a spacious family bathroom and further through to a large main living area, which is well lit and leads through to the modern fitted kitchen area, complete with a range of base and wall units. Currently being re-decorated by the present owner, this property provides an ideal opportunity for the prospective purchaser.

Externally there is ample off-road parking for vehicles and attractive communal garden areas. Internal inspection is highly advised to fully appreciate all that is on offer with this property and early viewing will be essential to avoid disappointment. Please contact the office for further information on this contemporary apartment.
