

This immaculately presented three bedroom detached house is located in the sought after location of Easingwold with great access links to York City centre and is surrounded by beautiful countryside.

The property features a long driveway for a number of vehicles and a large detached garage.

Entering into the property, into the hallway, you are greeted by a lovely lounge space with bay window, a welcoming kitchen and dining area which overlooks the spacious garden at the rear. White goods including integrated fridge/freezer, oven and hob and dishwasher are included.

As you proceed up the stairs, there are two double bedrooms, one with ensuite shower room, a modern bathroom with bath and shower and a further third bedroom.

A viewing is highly recommended.
