TWO BEDROOM TERRACED AVAILABLE NOW

This two-bedroom terraced house has just become available on a desirable road in Easingwold, Uppleby. This property is less than a 5-minute walk in the heart of the town, where you can find all local amenities.

As you walk into the property, you are greeted by a large hallway and a spacious lounge located at the front of the property. As you head through to the back of the property, you pass a second reception room, which could be used as a dining room. You will enter the wide galley kitchen with a built-in oven and hob. There is ample storage and counter space. At the end of the kitchen is a separate utility which has electric and plumbing for a washing machine.

As you proceed up the stairs, you are greeted by this considerably sized principal bedroom with some built-in storage at the front of the property. At the back of the property is the smaller double bedroom with built-in wardrobes/storage; this room could also be used as an office space or walk-in wardrobe. Upstairs, you will also find a generously sized three-piece suite family bathroom.

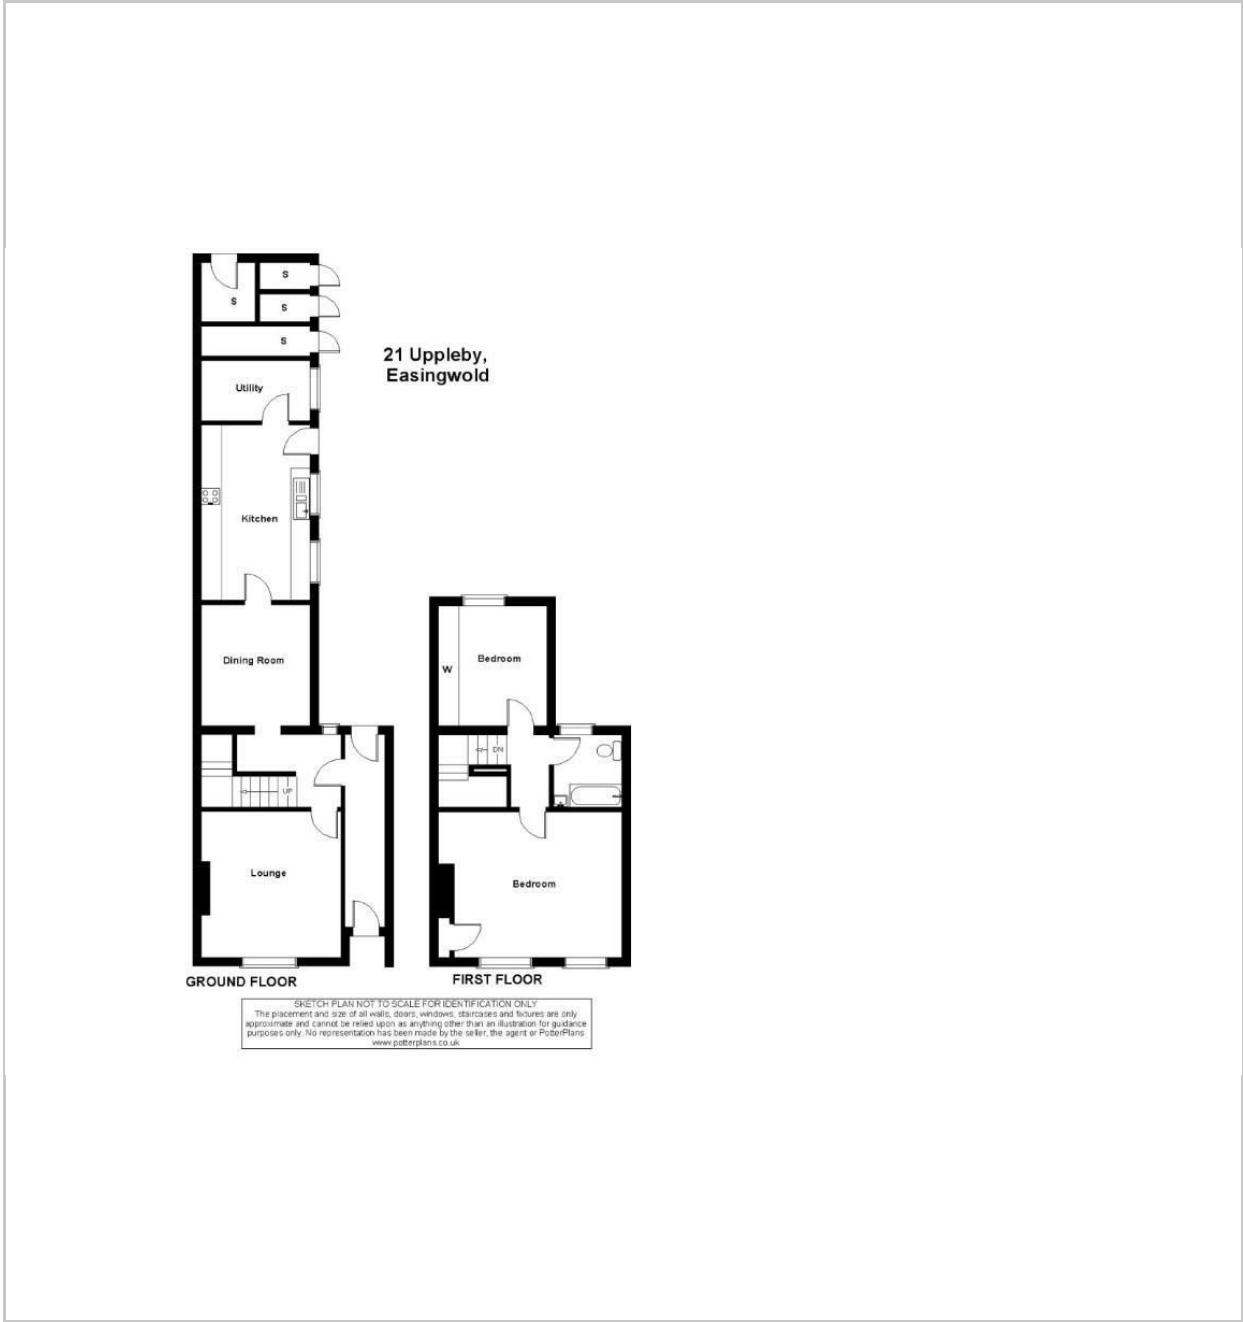

This property also benefits from outside storage and a patio and grass garden.
