Welcome to our exquisite period detached house, a true gem that takes you on a journey through time! Built around 1870 and cherished by the same family for 35 years, it has been lovingly and sympathetically maintained, extended, and improved, making it a perfect blend of history and modernity, set behind electric gates.

Step into the living room, and you'll be instantly captivated by the authentic charm of two brick walls adorned with inset beams, bearing witness to the house's rich heritage, having once served as stables with two tethering rings remaining, a living testament to a bygone era, evoking images of days filled with equestrian elegance.

Yet, don't be fooled by the nostalgia, for this house has been seamlessly enhanced to accommodate contemporary living. The kitchen/breakfast/family room extension, a true showpiece, boasts a breathtaking design, featuring bespoke units meticulously crafted by the renowned John Lewis of Hungerford.
