133 Seymour Way, Sunbury-On-Thames, TW16 7NL

This newly refurbished one-bedroom second-floor apartment offers a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers, investors, or commuters alike.

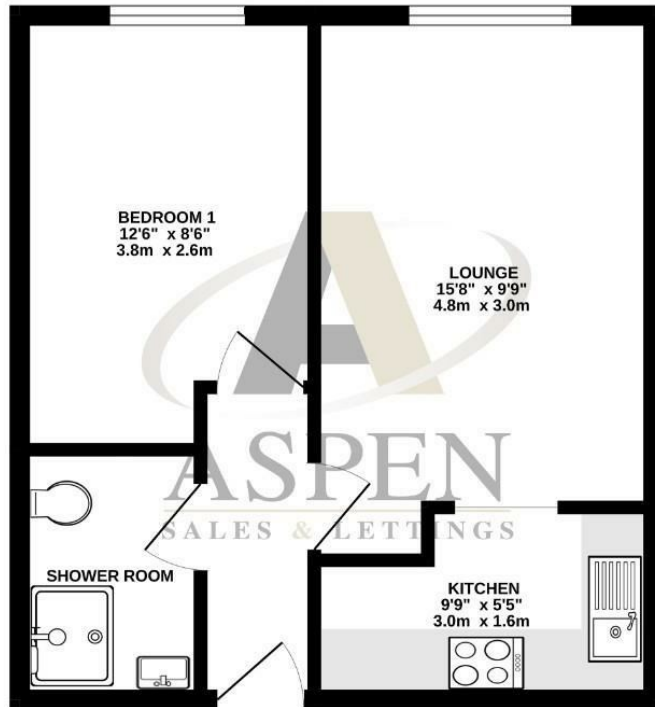

Ideally located within walking distance of a major Tesco superstore and a mainline train station with direct services to London Waterloo, the property combines convenience with modern comfort. Recently updated, the apartment features brand-new carpets throughout, new double-glazed windows for enhanced insulation and noise reduction, and upgraded electric heaters to improve energy efficiency.

Additional benefits include an allocated parking space, a long 150-year lease, and the significant advantage of no ground rent. With a sensible service charge of just £130 per month and no onward chain, the property presents a stress-free move-in opportunity. Whether you're looking to settle in or invest in a high-demand area, this well-presented home offers excellent value and a prime location for easy access to both local amenities and central London.
