

39a Ashgrove Road, Ashford, TW15 1NS

Tucked away in a highly sought-after and peaceful location, this unique two/three-bedroom, two-bathroom detached bungalow offers the perfect blend of convenience and luxury. Just a short walk from local shops, bus connections, and beautiful recreation parks, the property enjoys an enviable position while retaining a sense of privacy and tranquillity. Recently refurbished to the very highest of standards by the current owners, no detail has been overlooked, and no expense spared in creating a home of exceptional quality and comfort.

The property boasts a generous and secure gated driveway leading to a substantial double garage with a pitched roof, providing excellent storage or potential workshop space. Inside, the accommodation includes an impressive main bedroom suite complete with a luxurious ensuite shower room and a dedicated dressing room, as well as a high-specification kitchen and stunningly finished bathrooms. The landscaped rear garden offers an idyllic retreat, designed for both relaxation and entertaining, making this home as beautiful outside as it is inside. Combining prime location, outstanding craftsmanship, and thoughtful design, this bungalow is a truly rare find. Call Alex White and his market leading sales team at Aspen estate agents.
