Hythe CT21 4BU

Detached bungalow occupying a generous corner plot in the heart of Saltwood village.

No chain.

Situation

An extremely well located two bedroom detached bungalow in a quiet cul-de-sac in the heart of Saltwood village.

Local amenities close by include Sandling Station servicing the High Speed rail link to London St. Pancras, and the high performing local primary school and Brockhill Park Performing Arts College.

The nearby M20 motorway provides access to the remainder of Kent and Eurotunnel in Cheriton offers connections to France and the Continent.

The Property

Rarely available and located in a highly desirable location, a two bedroom detached bungalow occupying a generous corner plot at the end of a cul-de-sac, with wrap around gardens enjoying a good degree of privacy and seclusion.

The property is approached via secure electric entrance gates to a paved driveway and garage. This leads to an entrance porch with built-in storage cupboard and sliding door into a living room with a large picture window overlooking the pretty garden. There is an opening into a separate dining room which is open plan onto the kitchen which is fitted to a range of built in cupboards and display cabinets, roll top work surfaces, built in fridge and freezer and dishwasher.

There is also access into a small paved garden to the front of the property.

From the living room there is an inner hall leading to two double bedrooms which overlook the gardens, and a shower room with separate wc.

Outside

To the front of the house there are electric security gates leading to a generous paved drive and access to detached garage with electric roller doors, power and light.

The secluded and private wrap around gardens are lawned with a terrace area, mature trees and shrubs and have the added benefit of two security locked pedestrian gates.

There is also a small garden shed. Outside water tap.
