Penthouse Flat

14 Horizon 85 Seabrook Road Hythe

Penthouse with sea views close to local amenities and beach.

Situation

The Horizon apartments occupy a sought after location approximately a mile from Hythe town centre, with its range of interesting shops, boutiques, restaurants and several supermarkets. The Seabrook Road is on a main bus route into Folkestone, with connections to the surrounding towns, and the unspoilt seafront and picturesque Royal Military canal are across the road, and offer many delightful and interesting walks.

Commuting services are excellent with High Speed transport links to London St Pancras via Folkestone West station in under an hour. The nearby M20 motorway provides a network to the remainder of Kent and Eurotunnel in Cheriton offers connections to the Continent.

The Property

An extremely well proportioned Penthouse designed with an emphasis on modern living requirements and its position enjoying views out to sea and across the Bay.

Serviced by a lift opening onto its own landing, the attractively presented accommodation opens into the entrance hall, leading to a generous open plan style sitting/dining room and very well equipped kitchen with granite work tops and Miele appliances. This space opens onto two sheltered balconies with views across the canal towpath and out to Hythe Bay.

There are two double bedrooms with plenty of cupboard space, the master offering en-suite facilities, and there is a separate fully tiled modern bathroom. The apartment benefits from a study or occasional bedroom three, with sea views. The interior is further enhanced by double glazing, quality fixtures and fittings throughout and under floor heating.

Outside

The Penthouse is offered with two parking spaces, in addition to a number of visitor parking spaces, and there is outside storage for bins and bicycles.

The Penthouse is being sold with a share of the freehold.
