Heol Don | Cardiff | CF14 2AR

Hern & Crabtree

A handsome Edwardian detached house with a large garden located in Heol Don, Whitchurch. Ynys Y Coed is a substantial home, set over two floors, that carries a huge amount of features, charm and accommodation.

This turreted house has an attractive veranda to the front and is entered via a central front door that opens to a large central hall. The ground floor consists of a grand reception room that measures 28'3" x 19'4", that opens to the rear garden, the adjoining room is a relaxing sitting room with a turret to the corner. The kitchen sits to the other side of the house and opens to three sides: a utility room, breakfast room, and bay-fronted office/ study. A cloakroom completes the ground floor accommodation.

The first floor is accessed via a substantial quarter-turner staircase and landing that gives access to five bedrooms and the family bathroom. The master bedroom was part of a recent transformation and incorporates a large closet with dual doors, a fantastic balcony that overlooks the rear garden, and a five-piece ensuite with a walk-in shower and roll-top bath.

The house is set back from the main road via a driveway that leads to the detached double garage and parking area, served by an EV charging point.

The mature rear garden is a true delight with a very sunny aspect that produces a dappled light through mature trees at the borders. A patio at the rear of the house is served by an outdoor kitchen/ BBQ/ pizza oven.

The location is superb, with excellent road links for the M4, and regular near-by bus routes, the nearest train station is 0.2 miles away/ just a three-minute walk. The area is also served by excellent primary and secondary schools.

This already magnificent home also offers the potential to extend into the large loft-space and is an opportunity not to be missed.
