A rare opportunity to acquire a large, detached, executive family home with an additional annexe with extensive private gardens discreetly tucked away in the centre of Llandaff. Accessed via a leafy private drive from the top of Fairwater Road, this superb home is only a short distance from Llandaff high street, including local eateries, amenities and outstanding near-by schooling. Constructed in the 1960's this beautiful family home has been extended into a substantial property over the years, now covering 4100 square feet.

The house accommodates an entrance hall, cloakroom, fitted family kitchen and large open plan dining room / sitting room, a generous study and an additional large reception room with access to an adjoining ground floor apartment. The luxurious light and bright annexe can be accessed either by the main house or via a private front door, and comes equipped with kitchen, utility room, double bedroom, en suite shower room, living room and conservatory making it ideal guest quarters or rental.

On the second floor the residence boasts 6 bedrooms and 4 sizeable bathrooms, 3 of which are ensuite, with an additional study area.

The property is surrounded by a secure private sunny garden with mature planting, a sun terrace, summer house and bar; both an oasis and ideal spot for entertaining. The residence also comes with private off street parking and a double garage with electric roller door and an electric charging point.

This property presents a unique opportunity to attain a spacious family home in a prime location. Viewings are highly recommended.
