Palace Avenue

No chain. A charming period property offering space, character and flexibility across three floors, tucked away in one of Cardiff's sought-after street a stones throw away from Llandaff Village. This beautifully presented four-bedroom family home on Palace Avenue blends original features with thoughtful updates, including a rear extension and a converted loft with its own en suite shower room.

Inside, the property opens into a welcoming hallway with period tiles and offers two generous reception rooms, each with original fireplaces and character detailing. The extended kitchen is the hub of the home with skylights and French doors opening onto a landscaped garden that stretches over three sections. A ground floor shower room adds convenience, while the upper floors host four bedrooms, two bathrooms and excellent built-in storage throughout.

Palace Avenue is ideally positioned within walking distance of Victoria Park, Pontcanna and Llandaff fields, offering green open spaces, coffee shops and restaurants nearby. There are excellent local schools and amenities, while easy access to Cardiff city centre, local train stations and A48/M4 routes make this a highly convenient location for commuters and families alike.
