Description

A superb property situated on this highly sought after development that is found a short walk away from the centre of Dore Village. The property offers a range of versatile accommodation that extends to over 1902 square feet which is laid out over three floors and includes four versatile bedrooms and three luxurious bathrooms. The landscaped rear garden is complemented by a balcony/terrace at the front and the large field that is found below the development which offers plenty of space for energetic children to unwind and evening dog walks. The upper floors of the house command lovely views, over rooftops towards Holmesfield and there are modern fixtures and fittings in all the right places including the breakfast kitchen, the luxurious bathrooms and in one of the bedrooms that has been converted into a dedicated dressing room. This is a super property for buyers who are looking to move into a home that requires zero renovation and no stress at all and will appeal to a broad range of buyers including families who will appreciate the close proximity of outstanding schools, divorcees and couples alike. Dore has long been regarded as one of Sheffield most eminent places to live, residents enjoy a close proximity to the stunning countryside of The Peak District National Park and speedy transport links into the city which is found 5 to 6 miles away. Dore and Totley train station also has services running into town or, alternatively through the Hope Valley into Manchester making the area popular with commuters.
