Flat 10, AG1 Furnival Street

Description

A modern and generously proportioned studio flat offering 355 square feet of very well presented accommodation bang in the heart of the fashionable city centre, close to the train station. The Steel City's regeneration is on full flow and residents of AG1 literally have the lot within a short walk from their own doorstep. The recently opened Cambridge Street Collective (Europe's largest food hall) offers four floors of culinary delights to explore and Sheffield Hallam University's campus is found just around the corner. This is the perfect starter home for first time buyers and young professionals and the investor market will appreciate the opportunity to buy and let. The property has modern building regs, no issues with fire safety/mortgage issues and is available with no onward chain.
