

31, Linscott Road

Sheffield, S8 0HF

Description

Detached properties in this area are few and far between and detached houses offering everything that number 31 Linscott Road offers, at this price point are almost unheard of! This is a quite wonderful property that will suit a broad range of buyer. With a basement conversion providing a versatile fourth bedroom with ensuite shower room there is even potential to let some of the property out or alternatively use it for dependent relatives. The fully insulated and powered lodge that is found at the bottom of the pretty garden will be sure to appeal to those who now work from home as it would make the perfect home office. The open plan dining kitchen will be sure to impress any potential buyer. The current owners have installed many attractive bespoke fittings, often from timber, which all combine to make a lovely, homely feel throughout the three floors. With off road parking at the front and a delightful south facing garden to the rear this home offers something for everyone. This superb house and garden are complemented by the close proximity to excellent local amenities found in Woodseats, plus park walks in Graves Park and speedy transport links into the centre of town.
