Description

A stylish, three bedroom detached property that forms part of this modest development that is tucked away from Dore Road and constructed in the 1970's. The properties encircle a pretty, communal green which complements the private garden that is found between the garage and the kitchen, to the rear. Due to the 70's style there are typically impressive room sizes inside, particularly evident in the expansive sitting room that opens onto the terrace and communal gardens. There are other attractive, architectural features that include vaulted ceilings to the first floor landing and a great first impression in the reception hall. The property will suit a broad range of buyer including the family market who will appreciate the close proximity of some of the best schools in Sheffield or, alternatively retirees and down sizers due to the easily managed garden and there being an additional reception room on the ground floor adjacent to the modern cloaks/W.C which could be utilised as a ground floor bedroom if preferred. The village has long been regarded as one of the finest places to live in the city, on the edge of stunning countryside, easily accessible via superb transport links and well catered for by sports clubs, pubs, cafes and restaurants that all combine to make a thriving social scene.
