Description

If you are looking for a buy to let then investors should look no further! This end of terrace property is the ideal property and will be sure to attract tenants who will appreciate its close proximity to the city centre and a great social scene. The property is a three bed house however, due to the third bedroom being a single room, it is currently let as a two bedroom let bringing in a return of £11'440 at an annual yield of 6%. The area of London Road is a vibrant one. There are numerous cafes, restaurants, pubs and takeaways which combine to make the area busy throughout the week. Football lovers will appreciate the almost Brazilian like standard of football that is often displayed by Sheffield United at the nearby Bramall Lane and the fashionable Abbeydale Road is found just around the corner and offers a great social scene. The current rental runs until June 2026 and there is potential to further the income by letting the third bedroom if a tenant can be found. With nearly 744 square feet of accommodation laid out over three floors and a modern finish including full UPVC double glazing, gas central heating via a combination boiler and little in the way of renovations required this is a great place to invest your money.
