Area Information

Despite being close to London and having Watford on its doorstep, Bushey retains its village atmosphere. Bushey station provides frequent trains into London in as little as 29 minutes, making it an ideal choice for commuters. Watford is just a short drive away and features a big shopping centre, large Cineworld Imax cinema, leisure complex and a vibrant new restaurant hub.

Bushey High Street includes a range of independent shops, pubs and restaurants including Zaza's which is a popular local Italian restaurant and St James which offers fine dining.

There are a selection of primary schools including Bournehall Primary School, secondary schools such as Queen's School & Bushey Meads, as well as independent school options.

Bushey also provides ample green space and leisure facilities. King George Recreation Ground is popular with families and Bushey Grove Leisure Centre with swimming pool, gym, indoor and outdoor sports facilities, has lots of local members.
