SITUATION:

Crowborough is the largest inland town in East Sussex set within the High Weald Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, it borders Ashdown Forest and is a walkers paradise. Nearby there are horse riding and cycling facilities. There are Golf courses at Crowborough Beacon and Boars Head and at The Leisure Centre indoor swimming and a children's playground. Additionally there is Crowborough Tennis and Squash Club. Mainline trains from Crowborough's Jarvis Brook station to London Bridge take approximately one hour and there is a good selection of bus routes. Situated on the A26 it is just eight miles south of the Spa town of Royal Tunbridge Wells with it's historic Pantiles and the Old High Street and main line station to London. Coastal towns of Brighton and Eastbourne are one hours drive, Gatwick Airport about 45 minutes. The busy town centre with its village atmosphere has excellent independent retailers, restaurants and cafes, a post office, banks, doctors, dentists, and a choice of main supermarkets. There is a monthly farmers market and a thriving arts culture.
