Southerly Facing Rear Garden With Large Sandstone Patio

This charming detached property, built in 1925, for the Honourable Lady Leveson-Gower, an elder sister of Queen Elizabeth, The Queen Mother showcases the elegance of Regency Revival style. Located on a desirable road in The Warren area of Crowborough, it's conveniently close to local amenities. The home features a symmetrical facade with period details, including decorative "Quoins" and tall original sash windows, which fill the space with light. The current owners have thoughtfully updated the property, blending modern touches with its original character. Highlights include a 25ft drawing room with direct access to a southerly-facing rear garden. The house also boasts an in/out driveway, a welcoming entrance hall, and five generously sized bedrooms, all accessible via a galleried landing. Additionally, there is a modern shower room and a separate bathroom. The rear garden is spacious, with a paved patio and expansive lawn, perfect for enjoying sunny days. Given the rarity of properties of this character and style in Crowborough, we highly recommend arranging a viewing soon.

SITUATION:

Crowborough is the largest and highest inland town in East Sussex, set within the High Weald Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and bordering the Ashdown Forest. The town centre gives the impression of being a bustling village, with an excellent choice of supermarkets and numerous small, independent retailers, restaurants and cafes. The area is well served for both state and private junior and secondary schooling, including the Ofsted outstanding rated, Beacon Academy, as well as Crowborough Leisure Centre offering a swimming pool, gym, sports hall and a children's playground. The mainline railway station provides trains to London as well as a good selection of bus routes. Other attractions that Crowborough can offer include nature reserves, plentiful sport and recreation areas, children's play areas and a thriving arts culture and various annual events. The spa town of Royal Tunbridge Wells is approximately eight miles to the north where you will find the mainline railway station, good range of schooling and an excellent mix of retailers, eateries and pavement cafes spread through the historic Pantiles and The Old High Street.
