Offered to the market for the first time in over 30 years, this beautifully extended 18th century detached period cottage is set in an idyllic location on the fringes of Crowborough and with Crowborough Golf Course nearby. Enjoying far-reaching views to the front across Buxted, Uckfield, and the South Downs, the property is being sold chain free and presents a rare opportunity to acquire a charming countryside home. Entry to the home is via a bright and airy sunroom, currently used as an additional seating area, with French doors opening into a welcoming entrance hall and then the sitting room featuring a fireplace with wood burner and dual-aspect windows. The spacious dining room comfortably accommodates a large dining table and has direct access to a small paved patio. The traditional-style kitchen is complemented by a generous breakfast room, while a utility room and downstairs cloakroom complete the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, the property offers four bedrooms, two of which enjoy outstanding views-including the main bedroom, which benefits from an en suite bathroom. A modern family shower room serves the remaining bedrooms. Externally, the front of the property features a large driveway, access to a garage, and a front garden filled with mature planting. The wraparound gardens lead to a beautifully maintained rear garden, mainly laid to lawn with established trees, flowerbed borders, a summerhouse with a decked verandah, and a patio seating area.
