Large Rear Garden

Situated on the fringes of the picturesque Ashdown Forest and enjoying outstanding views from the front towards the South Downs, this much-loved detached chalet bungalow has been cherished by the current owner for many years. The property offers flexible accommodation, including four bedrooms, two reception rooms, a well-proportioned kitchen with adjoining utility and store area, a ground floor bathroom, and an upstairs shower room. Set within a generous plot, there is significant potential to extend or remodel, subject to the usual planning consents. Approached via a good-sized driveway with a single garage, the house benefits from a substantial rear garden, Homes in this sought-after location rarely come to market, and we recommend an early viewing to avoid disappointment.
