The Farm

Wellsyke Farm extends to 255.50 acres in a ringfence with the large period farmhouse located centrally near a small yard with brick and portal framed buildings and a pair of semi-detached cottages. Clements Farmhouse is a further cottage with brick farm buildings and a grass paddock.

The versatile land surrounds the above in good sized fields of mainly free draining sandy land. The land benefits from the reservoir and easy access from the central tracks.

The Laughton family have spent the last fifty years at the farm; firstly, attracted by the lighter land for outdoor pigs, then digging the reservoir, marling the land and growing a variety of crops including mustard, horseradish, potatoes, and leeks. The house has been the centre of a happy family home.

LOT 1 – Main Farm

Wellsyke Farmhouse

Wellsyke Farmhouse is a brick and slate period house that was extended and 'gentrified' in around the 1920s when it was known as Kirkby House. It is a large house overlooking sheltered gardens that lie to the south and lead down to a pond.

The house is ready for a new owner to renovate and add their stamp to enjoy the setting and charm. The Agents are able to share details of structural surveys and expected works.

A large family property with accommodation on the ground floor including; kitchen/diner, three reception rooms, snooker room, conservatory, boot rooms, utilities and pantry and office. On the first floor; 8 bedrooms, two smaller rooms, and family bathroom and separate WC.

The farmhouse internal floor extends to approximately 411 sqm (4425 sqft). EPC G expires September 2035.

There is a large garden around 2.5 acres which has a southerly aspect is predominantly down to lawn surrounded by established trees which provide privacy from the main yard. There are some brick outbuildings to the rear.

Wellsyke Farm Yard

On the opposite side of the drive to the house lies the farm yard with a range of brick and pan-tile buildings that have been altered over the years to form workshop, garaging, stabling, and farm storage. They connect in a L-shape with an external floor area of approximately 268 sqm (2,890 sqft).

Behind these lies an open fronted general purpose store with concrete and timber frame, cement fibre cladding, and concrete floor. Measuring 232 sqm (84 ft x 30ft)

A machinery shed is located further east. This is steel portal framed with asbestos cement and cement fibre cladding to three sides and earth floor. Measuring 267sqm (80ft x 36ft)

Semi-Detached Wellsyke Farm Cottages

Beyond the farmhouse and main yard lies two semi-detached farm cottages, each with two bedrooms, a kitchen, sitting room and bathroom. Each cottage also has a garden which provide extensive views of neighbouring fields and Wellsyke Wood and outbuildings. The internal floor area of each cottage is approximately 74 sqm (798 sqft).

2 Wellsyke Cottage EPC E53

Clements Farmhouse and Outbuildings

Following the drive south, you arrive at Clements Farm with yellow brick and slate house and a brick and tile range of former farm buildings in its own mature setting overlooking the grass paddock and arable fields.

The period house includes kitchen, utility, downstairs shower room, three reception rooms including one with its own well (now concreted over) and on the first floor; four bedrooms and bathroom. The house has been let on an assured shorthold tenancy to long standing tenants.

EPC F31 and on exemption register.

Clements farm buildings are brick and pantile and include domestic stores, a builder's store (let on a commercial lease) and two storey granary. These have an external floor area of around 268 sqm (2885 sqft). There is also a small steel shed behind.

There is a private internet mast that is due to be removed.

Arable Farmland and Grassland

The arable land within lot 1 extends to 88.6 ha (219 acres). These arable fields surround the aforementioned dwellings and yards in a ring fence between Wellsyke Lane and Kirkby Lane (The one field west of Wellsyke Lane is Lot 2). The majority of the fields are the versatile sandy loamy soils with suitable underdrainage with the fields closest Kirkby-on -Bain being loams over clay.

There is a 2 ha (5 ac) permanent grass field close to Clements Farmhouse that has been grazed by sheep and has an old pond (known as the moat but likely to be a decoy pond) and trees on one side. There is a mains water trough, fencing. The shelter will be removed.

Reservoir

There is a reservoir located centrally that was built in early 1980s and extends to around 1.3 acres of water with a capacity believed to have been around 20,000 cubic metres. It is filled naturally from strategically located land drains.

Since construction and when in use the reservoir has been refilled via the land drains and there was not the need to use the Horncastle Canal. There is no longer an abstraction licence after the vendor revoked a previous licence that allowed for filling from the Horncastle Canal.

To abstract from the reservoir the purchaser will need to apply for a new licence and this could permit filling from the land drains and/or the Horncastle Canal. Both are subject to application to the EA and the latter would require consent from the neighbours for access to the Horncastle Canal. The Agents are in the process making pre-application and can provide further details.

LOT 2 – Wellsyke Lane Field

There is a 8.1 ha (20.0 ac) field on the west of Wellsyke Lane. This is an arable field with road frontage close to Woodhall Spa and adjoining the Lincolnshire Wildlife Trust's Moor Farm Nature Reserve.

There is potential for environmental projects, biodiversity net gain, amenity or leisure uses subject to consents.

GENERAL REMARKS

Access

The farm (Lot 1) has access direct from Wellsyke Lane or from Kirkby Lane and there is a private drive running between the two and providing access to the dwellings, yards and fields. Lot 2 has direct access from Wellsyke Lane.

Services

There is mains electric to the dwellings and yard with each dwelling having separate meters. There are overhead lines providing prospect for further supply.

There is a mains water supply from Rimes Lane which crosses the farm and supplies all the dwellings and yards. This also supplies Bluebell House who pay the supplier from a sub meter but this should cease in due course. Part of the supply has recently been re-laid.
