Hill View, Lidgate CB8 9PY

A delightful semi detached home set on a large plot with countryside views in a cul-de-sac location in the highly regarded village of Lidgate.

The accommodation comprises of an open plan living room/diner, kitchen, three first floor bedrooms and a bathroom and an additional master bedroom in the converted loft space that offers views over open countryside. There is also an annexe providing an additional bedroom with ensuite, which would also make a good home office.

Externally, there is a large driveway and frontage providing off road parking for several cars. The rear garden is very established and well stocked and has a large traditional barn that provides storage and also the opportunity to develop further.

Location

Lidgate is a quaint village known for its peaceful countryside charm. It features historic architecture, including the remnants of a Norman castle and the medieval St. Mary's Church.
