Ground Floor

The entrance porch opens into a spacious reception hall, where an impressive timber staircase forms a striking focal point. An arch leads through to a cloakroom, and all the main reception rooms are accessed from the hallway.

The study is a generous and adaptable space—ideal for an individual working from home or as a games room—and features glazed bi-folding doors that open into the main sitting room, which has a feature fireplace and patio doors to the garden.

The kitchen/breakfast room is well laid out and attractively fitted, with an oven and hob, integrated fridge/freezer, and space for a dishwasher. An open arch leads into the central dining room, a spacious area perfect for entertaining, with patio doors opening onto the rear terrace.

The utility room is a practical addition, fitted with useful units, the oil-fired central heating boiler, and external access to the driveway—making it ideal as a boot room or laundry area.

First Floor

A light and airy galleried landing provides access to four large double bedrooms and the family bathroom. The main bedroom features fitted wardrobes and a private en-suite bathroom. Sloping ceilings on the first floor create visual interest and character across all rooms.

Outside

Set well back from the road and screened by mature hedging, the property enjoys a good degree of privacy. A sweeping gravel driveway offers parking for several vehicles and leads to a double garage with power, lighting, and a rear access door to the garden.

The rear garden is a great size and designed with both family life and outdoor entertaining in mind. A large paved terrace immediately behind the house is ideal for al fresco dining, while the central lawn is surrounded by mature planting, providing a private and attractive outlook.
