Built in the 1980s, this property boasts a deceptive spaciousness that is perfect for a growing family. Offering very versatile space for everyone.

As you step into the reception hall, you are greeted by the rustic charm of stone-flagged flooring and exposed stone walls, setting the tone for the character that flows throughout the house. The home office/family space is a versatile area with contemporary finishes and French doors that open up to the delightful gardens, offering a perfect blend of work and relaxation. A laundry room leads through to the garage / workshop.

The heart of the home lies in the superbly appointed dining-kitchen, complete with quartz worktops, a ceramic hob, eye-level oven, and integrated appliances including an eye-level oven and grill, integrated dishwasher and twin under-mounted stainless steel sinks, a double larder cupboard, engineered oak flooring to the dining area and with a pleasant outlook. The adjacent large living room is a cozy retreat with oak flooring, fitted shelving a wood-burning stove, and sliding doors that lead out to the front lawn garden. Off from the living room, a spacious studio/hobby room with great natural light and a door onto the gardens

The inner hall has a WC, store cupboard housing the manifold for the under-floor-heating, and a return staircase with feature window. Upstairs the property continues to impress with a principal bedroom offering stunning views across the Dales, a walk-in wardrobe, and eaves storage. Two additional double bedrooms with oak flooring and a spacious house bathroom with free-standing bath and large walk-in shower area, complete the upper level.

Outside, the property is surrounded by attractive gardens with mature shrubs and trees, providing a peaceful sanctuary. The driveway offers parking for multiple vehicles, while the rear garden features an alfresco dining area and a greenhouse along with raised veg/fruit beds for the green-fingered enthusiast.
