Offers Over £599,000

This impressive Detached Villa has been substantially extended over the years and now provides excellent accommodation of around 2500 square feet which makes this a fantastic family home.

The property is traditionally constructed and has a white painted render exterior beneath a hipped concrete tile roof which includes dormers to the rear. The roof was reroiled within the last five years.

Situated on the corner of Albert Drive and Arisaig Drive the house is in the heart of the popular Kensington area of Bearsden and is therefore with an easy distance of both Killermont Primary and the new Boclair Academy .

The front of the property has a level tarmac driveway providing parking for several vehicles. The private rear garden comprises a good size lawned area, slabbed patio and access to the garage via courtesy door. There is also a large summer house at the rear, which serves as a gym and at the corner of the house of further large wooden storage shed.

The single garage is accessed from Arisaig and has a single up and over door.

Internally the house is in excellent condition throughout with spacious rooms, fresh decoration and impressive kitchen and bathrooms.
