Situated on Salisbury Street in Colne, this property offers a promising investment opportunity or a blank canvas for new owners. The home features a cosy lounge, which provides a welcoming living space with ample natural light, perfect for relaxing or entertaining.

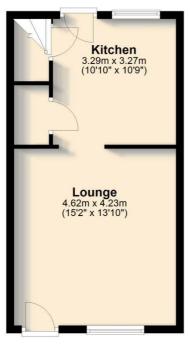

The fitted kitchen serves as a functional heart of the home, providing a base for meal preparation. While the property needs some refurbishment, the kitchen layout presents a great chance to design a space that suits your personal style and needs.

Upstairs, there are two bedrooms offering potential as comfortable sleeping spaces, with one smaller box room that could serve as a nursery, office, or additional storage area. The shower room completes the first floor and offers a convenient place to freshen up, though it may benefit from modern updates.

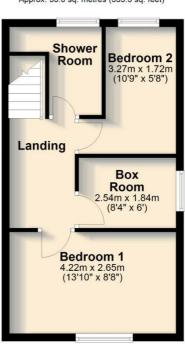

Outside, a rear yard provides an easily maintained outdoor space, ideal for small gatherings or a private retreat. Though the property requires some refurbishment, it offers the potential to create a charming home tailored to your vision. With thoughtful updates, this house can become a standout residence in a sought-after area of Colne.
