Sunny Cottage occupies an idyllic backwater setting situated in the picturesque hamlet of Sabden Fold. This 19th Century period cottage occupies a traffic free position with a generous garden area abutting open fields with fabulous views over the surrounding countryside.

Arranged over two floors, the property briefly comprises to the ground floor: an entrance porch as you enter to the front of the the property through a stable door. This leads into a generous kitchen with high ceilings, which continue throughout the property, housing matching wall, base and drawer units with co-ordinating work surfaces and splashbacks with an integrated double oven, ceramic double bowl sink and hob with an overhead extractor fan. To the rear of the kitchen is a spiral staircase ascending to the first floor and a large lounge/dining room boasting a brick fireplace with a multifuel stove and a glass door leading to the rear garden.

To the first floor is a central landing with a storage cupboard and leading to two generous double bedrooms situated to the front and rear of the property, the latter benefitting from built-in cupboards and a modern bathroom housing a three piece suite in white comprising a low level WC, pedestal wash basin and a panelled bath with an overhead shower.

The property benefits from the modern day comforts of UPVC double glazing, economy 7 heating, private spring and sewage system.

Externally there is parking for two cars, a shared forecourt to the front of the property and a lengthy, tiered garden to the rear with stone paving, plant beds and a large summer house at the bottom and fabulous views of the countryside beyond. Separate from the house is a large, stone built semi-detached garage which is situated across the road from the property. It has electricity and integrated store room.
